

Privacy & Cookie Policy

Due to the use of a Google Analytics cookie on our website, this Privacy & Cookie Policy has been prepared in alignment with ISO/IEC 27001 requirements to ensure transparency, minimal data collection, and appropriate safeguards

1. Introduction

Enpro Industries Pvt. Ltd. (“Enpro”, “we”, “our”, or “us”) is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our website. This policy explains what limited information is collected when you access or use our website, how that information is used, and the minimal use of cookies on our site.

Our website is intended primarily to provide information about our company, products, and services. We do not request or collect personal information such as names, email addresses, or contact numbers directly through this website.

2. Use of Cookies

Our website uses a single cookie provided by Google Analytics to help us understand how visitors interact with the site and to improve its content and usability. No other cookies are used, and no personal data is stored through this cookie.

Cookie Details:

Cookie Name	Purpose	Expiry
_ga	Assigns a unique identifier to distinguish users for aggregated statistical reporting (e.g., total site visits, pages visited).	2 years

For more details on how Google uses cookies, you can refer to Google’s Cookie Policy.

3. No Direct Collection of Personal Data

We do not actively collect or store personal data (such as names, email addresses, phone numbers, or any other personally identifiable information) through this website. The information available on our site can be browsed anonymously without the need for registration or form submissions.

4. Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to measure website performance and visitor trends. The information collected is aggregated and does not identify individual users. Data that may be captured by Google Analytics includes:

- Approximate IP address (which may be anonymized by Google),
- Device type and browser used,
- Approximate geographic location,
- Pages visited and duration of visit.

This information helps us understand which areas of our website are most useful to visitors and where improvements may be needed. More details on Google's privacy practices can be found in Google's Privacy Policy.

5. Managing or Disabling Cookies

Visitors who do not wish to be tracked by Google Analytics cookies can manage or disable cookies in their browser settings. Alternatively, you can install the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on, which prevents data collection by Google Analytics across all websites.

6. External Links

Our website may include links to external websites for additional information. We are not responsible for the content, privacy policies, or practices of these external sites. Visitors are encouraged to review the privacy policies of any third-party sites they visit.

7. Updates to This Policy

This policy may be updated periodically to reflect changes in our website practices or applicable legal requirements. The latest version will always be posted on this page with the effective date indicated.
